SPECTATOR BEHAVIOUR

Our commitment

Our club is committed to providing a safe environment for participation especially children in accordance with the Children and Young People's (Safety) Act 2017. Aggressive, threatening or other inappropriate behaviour by members, their families, their friends, and other sporting personnel while attending training session or event WILL NOT be tolerated.

These behaviours are outlined in our Judo SA Member Protection Policy (MPP) and specifically include:

- using bad language
- harassing or ridiculing players, coaches, officials or other spectators
- making racist, religious, sexist or other inappropriate comments to players, coaches, officials or other spectators
- any threatening behaviour or physical altercation between spectators and players, coaches, officials or other spectators
- putting undue pressure on children, berating them or putting down their performance
- drinking alcohol at a training or being drunk at a club event.

What we will do

- Provide members, their parents and other sporting personnel with our Member Protection Policy (accessible on the Kazoku Judokan's website www.kazokujudokan.com.au or www.judosa.com.au) and make clear what is expected and the consequences of non-compliance.
- Reinforce messages of fair and respectful behaviour by providing information on our website and through other club communication.
- Encourage our coaches and officials to complete training to develop their skills and confidence.
- Ban bringing alcohol to training and competitions held by Kazoku Judokan.
- Consult with our local police and seek their support and advice on how to handle issues involving inappropriate behaviour by spectators prior to, at or after a competition.
- Encourage the reporting of incidents and investigate inappropriate behaviours as outlined in this policy and take disciplinary or whatever other actions as are deemed necessary (e.g. appoint an official to monitor behaviour) as per Judo SA Member Protection Policy.

Play by the Rules is supported by the Australian, state and territory governments.

What we ask you to do

- Help create a positive atmosphere for players, officials and other spectators by showing respect for players, officials and other spectators in the training hall, competitions and to and from all venues.
- Abide by our club's Member Protection Policy (available on Kazoku Judokan's website) and refrain from using bad language, harassing or ridiculing others or behaving in a threatening or violent manner.
- If you are aware of inappropriate spectator behaviour and you feel confident to do so, speak with the person and ask them to stop. If there is an official or committee member present, ask for their assistance.
- Report any inappropriate spectator behaviour to the club president or someone in a position of authority (Kazoku Judokan club member roles are available on the club website)
- Call the police or a club official if you are concerned for your safety or the safety of others, then escalate your concern as outlined in Judo SA Member Protection Policy

Non-Compliance

Parents or others found to have behaved inappropriately may face disciplinary action as outlined in our Member Protection Policy.

I, _____ have read and understood the policy and will abide by it as a member of
